LET'S STAY HEALTHY TOGETHER!

The Housing Authority of Covington wants all of our residents to know that your health and safety are our number one priority. As an agency, we taking every step to reduce the spread of the COVID-19 virus in your community and would like to encourage you to do the same by following these steps:

- Wash your hands often with soap and water. If soap and water are not available, use an alcohol-based sanitizer of at least 60% alcohol.
- Avoid close contact with people, keep 6 feet in-between yourself and others when possible.
- Avoid touching your face; such as your eyes, nose and mouth.
- Cover your cough and sneeze with a tissue, then throw tissue away.
- Stay home if you are sick.
- Clean and disinfect your home and objects frequently.

We will continue to share information as it becomes available and do our best to keep you informed. For more information and updates regarding the COVID-19 virus, check out the Northern Kentucky Health Department website at <https://nkyhealth.org/individual-or-family/health-alerts/coronavirus/>. If you have any questions, please contact your property manager.

HAVE KIDS HOME FROM SCHOOL? HERE ARE SOME FREE WAYS TO KEEP THEM LEARNING!

1. F2B/CKU apps - Teachers and parents can monitor each child's progress once it is uploaded to the website. Parents can enroll Covington children that are not registered in a school or program as a community user at www.myf2b.com/register/Covington
2. Visit one of the many Little Free Libraries in Covington. Take a book. Share a book. They really are free! If you find an empty one, contact us at City Hall to ask about refilling it.
3. Exercise and Learn! Take a walk together to find the 26 A-Z alphabet signs located in Downtown, Peaselburg, and Eastside neighborhoods.

It's a 'New Day' at the Housing Authority of Covington!

Steve Arlinghaus, Executive Director, and members of the agency's management team believe changing the brand will help communicate the agency's new image while reinforcing a corporate culture of accountability, continuous improvement, and a customer first mindset. We want everyone to know it's a new day at The Housing Authority of Covington!

The logo, as seen on the right, represents the idea that the Housing Authority of Covington, as a provider of affordable housing, is a stepping stone to a better life and "better futures." Our organization is dedicated to providing safety and structure to our residents and will continue to improve and grow as an organization to support our mission.
